Summing Up

-I knew your third wife. She could belt ‘em out!
(sings) “I haven’t got time for the pain.”

-That’s all she had time for.

-Don’t you think she gets together with her friends and says a few things about you.

-Hey! If she runs out, I got more for her. Endless inventory.

-You could get that new girlfriend to program them into your android phone.

-I like that! In code for brevity. 14e being a particular doozy!

-But 4237a is thoroughly disgusting! Beyond anything!

-Stop being witty–if that’s what that was.

-Am I running the numbers too high?

-Not for Attila the Hun.

-How about Vlad the Impaler?

-Girls thought him sweet.

-You never know.

-Why I like Jane Austin. She never gets to the sex-grimy point.

-Who knew there was one?
